North-Carolina, at a Convention held in Raleigh, 27th March, 1867: Having assembled in the City of Raleigh on the 27th of March, 1867, in conformity with a timely and patriotic call, reflecting the sentiments of the loyal men of the State, and believing the time is at hand when an open and fearless expression of sentiment, opinion, and purpose is ur gently demanded; therefore 1. Resolved, That in view of our present politicat condition, our relations to the National Government and the people of all sections of the country, we do this day with proud satisfaction unfurl the brilliant and glorious banner of THE REPUBLICAN PARTY, and earnestly appeal to true and patriotic man in the State to rally to its support.

The splendid and patriotic record made by this great political organization, in standing by the general government with an inflexible resolu-tion, in carrying forward profound measures of statemanship to a successful issue, and the powerful aid given by it in finally overthrowing and prostrating the most gigantic rebellion of ancient or modern times, should command the respect and challenge the admiration of every

2. Resolved, That the American Congress emiinently entitled to the profound thanks of the whole country for its persevering, persistent and heroic devotion to the great principles of human rights as enunciated in the Declaration of Independence; that in the name of the patriotic people of this State we feel warranted in cordially assenting to and accepting the reconstruction plan recently and finally adopted by that body, and to the end that peace and order may be permanently secured and every industrial pursuit resumed and encouraged, we pledge ourselves to use every fair and legitimate means to influence public sentiment to the nearest possible approach to unanimity on this subject.

3. Resolved, That we rejoice that the dogma long propagated, of the right of peaceable secession under the Constitution, has been forever overthrown by the majestic uprising of the American people, in crushing out the late rebellion by force of arms; and that the doctrine that the supremacy of the general government has been established, and that the paramount allegiance of the citizen has been acknowledge as due to the United States.

4. Resolved, That we sincerely exult in the fact that as a nation we are now absolutely a NATION OF FREEMEN, and that the sun in all his course over our wide spread country no longer shines upon the brow of a slave. Without reservation we heartily endorse the great measures of Civil Rights and Impartial Enfranchisement without any property qualification, conferred without distinction of color, and that we are ready to unite in the early practical attainment of these inestimable privileges. Although the mortal remains of Abraham Lincoln now rest silently beneath the soil of his adopted State, yet his voice still rings like a clarion through the land, earnestly summoning every American citizen to the support of the great Party of Liberty and

5. Resolved, That as the most potent and effi cient means by which the South can speedily re-ain her lost prosperity, we carnestly advocated the spreading of knowledge and education among all men, and that to the attainment of this great end, we demand and shall persistently and tirmly insist upon the absolute right of free di-cussion and free speech on all subjects of public interest.

6. Resolved, That we join in an earnest wish for the maintenance untarnished and undimmed of the public credit and plighted faith of the nation. 7. Resolved, That in the maintenance of the position taken and the principles this day avow ed, we carnestly invite the influence and co-op-eration of men of all political persuasions, who regard and cordially support the recent action of Congress as a solution of our present political difficulties; that we deprecate partizan violence and desire peace and good will toward all men; and if in an open and fearless effort, which we propose to make on every suitable occasion, to ide and convince the people, that our highest duty and truest interest is to subserved by maintaining the princibles of the Republican Par ty, an earnest interest should be awakened, it will be from no other cause than a rigid adhe rance to what we regard as a sacred right and a solemn public duty.

PLATFORM AND RESOLUTIONS Adopted by the Republican State Convention which assembled in Tucker's Hall, Raleigh, September 4, 1867.

PLATFORM. We, the delegates, representing the loyal people of North-Carolina assembled in Convention, in the City of Raleigh, on the 5th day of September, 1867, for the purpose of perfecting and strengthening the organization of the Republican party in the State, and in order to aid in the great work of restoring, preserving and perpetuating the Union, do Resolve, That the Republican party in North-Carolina hereby re-affirm the principles enuncia-ted in the Convention of true Republicans which assembled in this City on the 27th day of last March, and does fully accept, adopt and sustain the principles of the Republican party of the Uni RSSOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That the Republican party of North-Carolina, on the subject of confiscation and all other matters appertaining to Reconstruction, will faithfully adhere to, and abide by, the Re construction plan and measures of Congress. Resolved, That this Convention of Republicans of North-Carolina, appreciating the splendid achievements of Gen. Sheridan, of the armies of the United States, and beholding with admiration his just and unflinching administration of affairs in the 5th military district, thus publicly express their gratitude towards this gallant soldier, and their hearty disapproval of his recent removal by

Resolved, That Gen. Canby, the District Commander, be respectfully requested to order an election in this State at an early day, and that he also order the assembling of the Constitutional Convention as soon thereafter as may be conve-Resolved, That the Republican party of North-Carolina hereby pledges itself to the speedy con-struction of the Central Railroad West to Duck-PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

ARTICLE I.

1. An Executive Committee to consist of twenty-one members, three from each Congressional district, shall be appointed by the Presi-dent of the Convention. Said Committee shall have the general supervision of the affairs of the Republican party of this State; it shall also have the authority to fix the time for the annual meeting of the State Convention, and to call said State Convention together at such other times as the good of the party may require.

2. The three members of said Committee, resident in each Congressional district, shall consti-tute an Executive Committee for their respective districts, and shall have supervision of the affairs of the party in their districts, and the power to call district Conventions, whenever in their opinion the good of the party shall require. The State Executive Committee shall appoint County Executive Committees of five or where such County Executive Committees, subordinate to the State Committee, do not now exist. The County Committees shall serve for one year, or unt I they shall be superseded by new ones, selected by County Conventions. The County Committees shall have the supervision of the affairs of the Republican party in their respective Counties, and shall appoint precinct Committees, and call County Conventions, whenever in their opinion the good of the party shall require. ARTICLE IL. 1. No member of the Republican party shall become a candidate for any office, until he shall have been regularly nominated by the proper authority, and all Republicans are required port nominations when so made. Any Republi can desiring an office may become a candidate for the nomination, but not for the office itself until he shall be regularly nominated 2. Candidates for office shall be placed in nomination as follows:

For City, Town, or Precinct officers by City, Town or Precinct Conventions. For Delegates to a Constitutional Convention, Members to lower House of Legislature, and County Officers by County Conventions. For Members to State Senate by Conventions of their respective Senatorial districts. For Members to Congress by Conventions of the Congressional Districts; and for Governor, and other State officers by a State Convention. 3. Each County shall be entitled to the same number of votes in State and District Conven tions, as it is entitled to Members in the House of Commons of the Legislature, and all Conventions of the Republican party shall be open and

PLATFORM AND RESOLUTIONS Adopted by the Republican State Convention which assembled in Tucker Hall, Raleigh,

February 26, 1868. 1. Resolved, That we, the Delegates of the Republican State Convention, do hereby reaffirm the principles and sentiments contained in the Republican Platform of the 27th of March and the 5th of September, 1867.

2. Resolved, That the continued and persistant efforts now being made upon the part of the socalled Conservative organization of the State to place the stigma and ban of social ostracism up-on thousands of patriotic Southern white men, who have the manliness and courage to stand firmly of the Republican Party, is justly regard-ed as narrow, reckless and vindetive, and well calculated to excite the contemp of every honorable man.

3. Resolved, That we nereby renew our expresions of admiration and gratitude toward the resolute and patriotic majority of the Congress of the United States; especially do we emphatically approve of the noble stand recently taken by the House of Representatives, in maintaining the ights and liberties of the people against the en-roachments and flagrant assumptions of a vacillating and accidental President.

4. Resolved, That this Convention do hereby carnestly and emphatically recommend to the Congress of the United States the early enfranchisement of various well known true Union men in our State, who are at present resting un-der political disabilities. Resolved, That having the fullest confidence that the present Constitutional Convention will rame for submission such a Constitution as will command the earnest and enthusiastic support of the friends of liberty and progress in our State, we shall enter upon the approaching contest with a firm determination to make our triumph significant and complete. 6. Resolved That to all of the nominations made by this Convention we do hereby pledge an unwavering and unfaltering upport.
